Website : www.collectmomentstravel.com

A fascinating excursion across the elegant cultural scenery and spectacular views of Morocco awaits you! The trip begins in Rabat, the capital, formally established in 1912, combining Islamic and French-colonial architecture within the country's rich history. Once you have experienced both the beautiful scenery and ambiance of the capital, it is only appropriate that you visit the spiritual heart of the country in Fes. Fes remained the capital until 1925 with its appropriately ornate in its frenetic medina and sacred ambiance! And then, the heart and soul of Morocco can best be experienced in Marrakesh, home to one of the largest and most colorful souks in the world, and one you can easily lose yourself in. This vibrant marketplace is decorated in every color of the rainbow representing an assortment of spices, textiles, and other handcrafted wonders! And while in Morocco, have an opportunity to visit Casablanca, the country's largest city, with a more modern, yet cultural vibe - a gathering point where they celebrate old traditions

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

*Morocco is quite a mountainous country with the Atlas Mountains running from northeast to the southwest through the center and the Rif Mountains located in the north

*In Moroccan culture, the liver is considered the center of love, not the heart

*Visit to the capital city of Morocco - Rabat, a historic city which is characterized by Islamic and French-colonial architecture

*Visit to Fes – the erstwhile capital of Morocco (until 1925), long been considered the spiritual home of the country

*And of course, visit to Marrakech (host of one of the biggest souks of Morocco) & Casablanca (the largest city of Morocco)

TRIP ITINERARY

DAY 1

CASABLANCA - ARRIVAL DAY (CMN)

Arrive at Mohammed V airport, Casablanca and meet and greet with our representative and transfer to hotel and check in at hotel.

Overnight: Hotel in Casablanca

DAY 2

CASABLANCA - MARRAKECH

After breakfast, check out and proceed to United Nations Square.

It is a public square in the center of Casablanca, Morocco.

It has been central in the history of Casablanca.

The Hassan II Mosque (exterior) dominates the entire city.

Finished in 1993, it is the second largest mosque in the world, covering two hectares in size with the world's tallest minaret (200 meters high).

The Boulevard de la Corniche is not just an attraction - it's the thing that defines the modern rhythm of Casablanca.

It is a pulsating neighbourhood overlooking the Atlantic Ocean.

Later transfer to Marrakech.

Arrive Marrakech and check-in hotel, rest of the time is to explore the city of Marrakech by own.

Overnight: Hotel in Marrakech

DAY 3

MARRAKECH

After breakfast proceed to sightseeing of Marrakech founded by the Almoravides at the end of the 11th century; Marrakech sits in a lush oasis nestling at the foot of the snow-capped Atlas Mountains.

You will visit the famous the Koutoubia mosque, the gorgeous Bahia Palace and Majorelle garden a peaceful space in the New Town with exotic botanical plants brought from all over the world.

Proceed to main square of Djemaa el Fna, It is a square and market place in Marrakesh's medina quarter (old city).

It remains the main square of Marrakesh, used by locals and tourists.

Overnight: Hotel in Marrakech

DAY 4

MARRAKECH - BENI MELLAL - FES

After breakfast check-out hotel and drive to Fes via Beni Mellal.

Beni Mellal is where the scenic charms of a rugged landscape meet a vibrant desert culture.

Cradled in the foothills of the Middle Atlas range, the town has sweeping views of the Beni Amin plains beneath.

Finally arrive at Fes.

Fes can seem like it is in a state of perpetual pandemonium; some visitors fall instantly in love and others recoil in horror.

Overnight: Hotel in Fes

DAY 5FES

After breakfast, Proceed to City tour of Fes.

Visit of the medieval Medina.

You will also explore the famous souks where craftsmen still labour in the age-old oriental tradition. Another stop where you will get to enter the site is what is considered the finest of Fez' theological colleges; the Medersa Bou Inania.

You will not miss the Tanneries for sure.

It's one of the city's most iconic sights (and smells) offering a unique window into the pungent, natural process of producing world-class leather using methods that have changed little since medieval times.

Other stops during the tour include Nejjarine Fountain and Moulay Idriss grave.

The Palaces of Fez El Bali is the oldest walled part of Fez, Morocco.

Fes el Bali was founded as the capital of the Idrisid dynasty between 789 and 808 AD.

The Mellah (Jewish quarter) walk there on pm end of the visit.

Back to hotel.

Overnight: Hotel in Fes
